

Help the Newberry Document Today's Civil Rights Movement

The Newberry seeks to preserve and provide access to an enduring record of the protests that have erupted in Chicago and across the U.S. in response to systemic civil rights violations and recurring police violence against black citizens. Materials of interest include:

- Protest posters and graphics
- Photographs
- Flyers, handbills, and give-aways
- Personal memoirs or testimonies

If you might be interested in contributing to the Newberry's collections, please contact the Newberry's curatorial staff listed below:

Martha Briggs
Curator of Modern Manuscripts
(312) 255-3554
briggsm@newberry.org

Will Hansen
Curator of Americana
(312) 255-3527
hansenw@newberry.org