

A collaboration between the WFMT Radio Network and the Chicago History Museum, the Studs Terkel Radio Archive (STRA) is a free online repository of the radio shows of Chicago broadcaster and oral historian Studs Terkel. The Archive has made over 400 programs available to the public to date.

In honor of the 30th anniversary of the Bughouse Square Debates, the STRA has curated a selection of radio shows related to the early 20th-century heyday of Bughouse Square as well as to the themes of this year's soapbox speeches. To access the audio, please scan the QR codes below using any QR code-reading app on your phone.

LISTEN TO STUDS REMINISCE ON THE HEYDAY OF BUGHOUSE SQUARE...

A collaboration between the WFMT Radio Network and the Chicago History Museum, the Studs Terkel Radio Archive (STRA) is a free online repository of the radio shows of Chicago broadcaster and oral historian Studs Terkel. The Archive has made over 400 programs available to the public to date.

In honor of the 30th anniversary of the Bughouse Square Debates, the STRA has curated a selection of radio shows related to the early 20th-century heyday of Bughouse Square as well as to the themes of this year's soapbox speeches. To access the audio, please scan the QR codes below using any QR code-reading app on your phone.

LISTEN TO STUDS REMINISCE ON THE HEYDAY OF BUGHOUSE SQUARE...

STUDS INTERVIEWS...

Mike Royko on his biography of Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley, Boss, 3/15/71

Members of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, 1960

Martin Luther King, Jr., 10/22/64

PFLAG (Parents and Friends of Lesbians and Gays) on hate speech, 2/10/82

Carl Bernstein and Bob Woodward on the Watergate scandal, 6/21/74

Alderman Dick Simpson and Mike Royko on Chicago politics, 7/21/71

STUDS INTERVIEWS...

Mike Royko on his biography of Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley, Boss, 3/15/71

Members of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, 1960

Martin Luther King, Jr., 10/22/64

PFLAG (Parents and Friends of Lesbians and Gays) on hate speech, 2/10/82

Carl Bernstein and Bob Woodward on the Watergate scandal, 6/21/74

Alderman Dick Simpson and Mike Royko on Chicago politics, 7/21/71

